

Students-Title IX

Sex-Based Discrimination and Sexual Harassment

Sex-based discrimination and sexual harassment against students of educational institutions is prohibited under Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, as well as under other federal and state laws, local ordinance, and school board policy.

The Anchorage School District is committed to providing a learning environment that is free from sex-based discrimination and sexual harassment. Prohibited conduct includes but is not limited to unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical harassment that is sexual in nature.

Students who experience sex-based discrimination or sexual harassment may file a Student Grievance with the Anchorage School District, or may file a complaint with an external agency.
