Special Education Advisory Committee "SEAC"

SEAC is an education and advisory entity within Aurora Public Schools. Members can include parents and caregivers of students with an Individual Education Program (IEP), students, administrators and staff. Joining SEAC will bring you into the loop' about District changes as well as with Exceptional Student Services. As a group you will be asked for feedback on a variety of issues. SEAC also organizes family education events such as the Resource Fair and Family Education seminars learning issues specific to Special Education. YOU are invited to become a member of SEAC.
