Values and Beliefs

The Chapel Hill-Carrboro City School District has long recognized the importance of creating a learning environment for all students and staff, and of developing collaborative partnerships with families and stakeholders who represent our diverse community.

English