

Arts Student Voice Committee

The Arts Student Voice Committee (ASVC) is a diverse group of CPS high school students who work with the Department of Arts Education (DAE) team to discuss, create, and execute strategies for improving arts education in Chicago Public Schools. Additionally, ASVC contributes their ideas and talents to DAE events and programs, further amplifying and encouraging student voices in arts education.

How to Apply

Are you a student who is interested in affecting arts education within CPS? We want to hear from you! Apply to the Arts Student Voice Committee (ASVC) by September 20 for consideration for the 2026-27 school year:

They also work on select projects for the Department of Arts Education throughout the school year.

ASVC meetings are in-person every other week after school on Tuesdays from 4:30pm-6pm at Wells High School (936 N Ashland Ave, Chicago, IL 60622).

Benefits of being on ASVC include:

- Meet like-minded students from across the city
- Engage with leaders within Chicago's arts education sector
- Attend outings to arts and cultural events
- Free snacks and Ventra cards

ASVC in Action!

SY24-25

The SY24-25 ASVC worked closely with the Student Programs team to design promotional materials for All-City Performing Arts, All-City Visual Arts, and the RE·VER·BER·ATE Festival. They also designed and presented a zine and video for the Holistic Instructional Practice Summit held by CPS' Arts Professional Learning team. Explore the zine and watch the video below!

Download the Zine

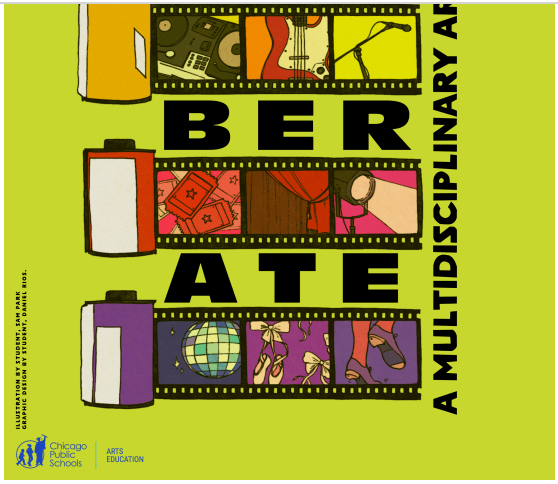

SY23-24

The SY23-24 ASVC worked closely with the Student Programs team to design promotional materials for the RE·VER·BER·ATE Festival, as well as RE:ALIZE.

SY22-23

The SY22-23 ASVC worked closely with the Student Programs team to design promotional materials for the RE·VER·BER·ATE Festival.

SY21-22

SY20-21

Rest & Renew: As part of the 2021 Arts Education Conference: Rest & Renew, the ASVC collaborated with musician Cole DeGenova to write lyrics for an original song celebrating our amazing teachers, arts partners, and students for persisting through a challenging school year.

SY19-20

Why The Arts?: To accompany Amplifying Essential Voices, our April 2020 Conference Keynote and Panel event, the ASVC created this video about the importance of arts education that cleverly riffs on Kahoot!, the popular learning platform.

Thank You, CPS Arts Teachers: The ASVC express their gratitude to CPS arts teachers at the end of the SY20 school year.

Contact Us

Chicago Public Schools

ARTS

Was this page helpful?

YES NO

CHICAGO

CPS DEPARTMENT OF ARTS EDUCATION

42 W. Madison Street, 3rd Floor
Chicago, IL 60602
cpsarts@cps.edu
773-553-2170

Programs
Best Practices
About
Arts Schools
Partners
Policies & Procedures

FOLLOW US:

SUBSCRIBE:

Our Newsletter

© 2026 Chicago Public Schools | 1.0.9776 | 1J