AREAS OF FOCUS

+ Continuous Learning

- Regularly receive updates on the implementation of the Community Schools strategy, including successes, challenges, and outcomes. These updates foster open dialogue to support continuous improvement and guide the work of the Office of Community Schools.

+ Work Groups

- Participate in, lead, or support sub-groups that focus on specific aspects of Community Schools implementation. These groups may address areas such as parent and student engagement, wellness, and other strategic priorities to strengthen community school hubs.

+ Advise on Community Schools Framework

- Leverage key elements of the Community Schools model to offer feedback on critical sections and assess our progress in implementation.

+ Partnership and Engagement

- Help establish or guide partnerships with community organizations, businesses, and other key stakeholders to support the Community School model across school sites and the community. Provide input on ways to expand and enhance partnerships for long-term success.

+ Awareness and Advocacy

- Serve as advocates and champions for the Community School model by sharing its successes and insights with various audiences, including the school board, city council, media, community stakeholders, and state and national organizations.
