To participate in this program and continue providing care for your child, we kindly ask for your assistance in providing insurance information. All information shared is strictly confidential and protected under HIPAA and FERPA regulations. Providing this information allows us to ensure your child receives timely, uninterrupted support services at school.

Please input your insurance information directly into Aeries

If your child does not currently have insurance, please let us know; services will still be available through alternative funding sources.

Every student deserves access to care
Let's work together to improve the wellness of our GGUSD students!
