Student Board Member, Patrick Cruse (2026-2027)

Patrick Cruse, a senior at City Honors International Preparatory School, serves as the Inglewood Unified School District Student Board Member, representing thousands of students across the District at the Board of Education. As a voice for the next generation, Patrick brings extensive experience in educational leadership and policy, serving as a statewide Director of Educational Policy with the California Association of Student Councils representing 6 million students. Under his leadership, he champions student voice, advances meaningful engagement, and ensures that student perspectives help shape the future of education across IUSD and beyond.
