Required Notices and Board Policies

Each year, employees are required to review selected Board Policies that focus on their roles and responsibilities as employees of a school district. These policies reinforce the roles and responsibilities of employees to:

- Understand the unwavering commitment to Equity and Excellence in Education in LBUSD
- Provide a safe and positive school and work climate
- Provide equal opportunity for all individuals in district programs and activities to ensure they are free from unlawful discrimination
- Treat others with dignity, fairness, respect, and unconditional positive regard
- Establish rules for appropriate conduct, including prohibitions against bullying, cyberbullying, and harassment
- Report discrimination, bullying, intimidation, harassment (including sexual harassment), suicidal warning signs, and child abuse, and know the responsibilities for intervention in these circumstances
- Understand the Uniform Complaint Procedures (UCP)
