Any student who is enrolled in a public school may be subject to being declared a habitually disruptive student.

The student and the parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian shall have been notified in writing of each disruption counted toward declaring the student as habitually disruptive and the student and parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian shall have been notified in writing and by telephone or other means at the home or the place of employment of the parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian of the definition of “habitually disruptive student.”

According to C.R.S. 22-33-106(2), subject to the district's responsibilities under the Exceptional Children's Education Act and applicable federal law, the following may be grounds for expulsion from or denial of admission to a public school or diversion to an appropriate alternate program:

1. Physical or mental disability such that the child cannot reasonably benefit from the programs available.
2. Physical or mental disability or disease causing the attendance of the child suffering therefrom to be inimical to the welfare of other students.

Students in Preschool Through Second Grade

Students in preschool, kindergarten, first grade, or second grade may only be subject to suspension or expulsion for engaging in the following types of conduct while on District property, in a District vehicle, at a District or school-sponsored activity or event, or off District property when such conduct has a reasonable connection to school or any District curricular or non-curricular activity or event:

1. Violation of the District's policy on student conduct involving weapons.
2. Violation of the District's policy on student conduct involving drugs and alcohol.
3. Conduct that endangers the health or safety of others.

The above conduct is only grounds for suspension or expulsion if the District determines that failure to remove the student from the school building would create a safety threat that cannot otherwise be addressed and the District has considered the factors set forth in District Policy JKD/JKE – Suspension/Expulsion of Students.
