ENGAGE PGCPS: Winter Weather Calendar Updates (02/24/25)

Top Stories

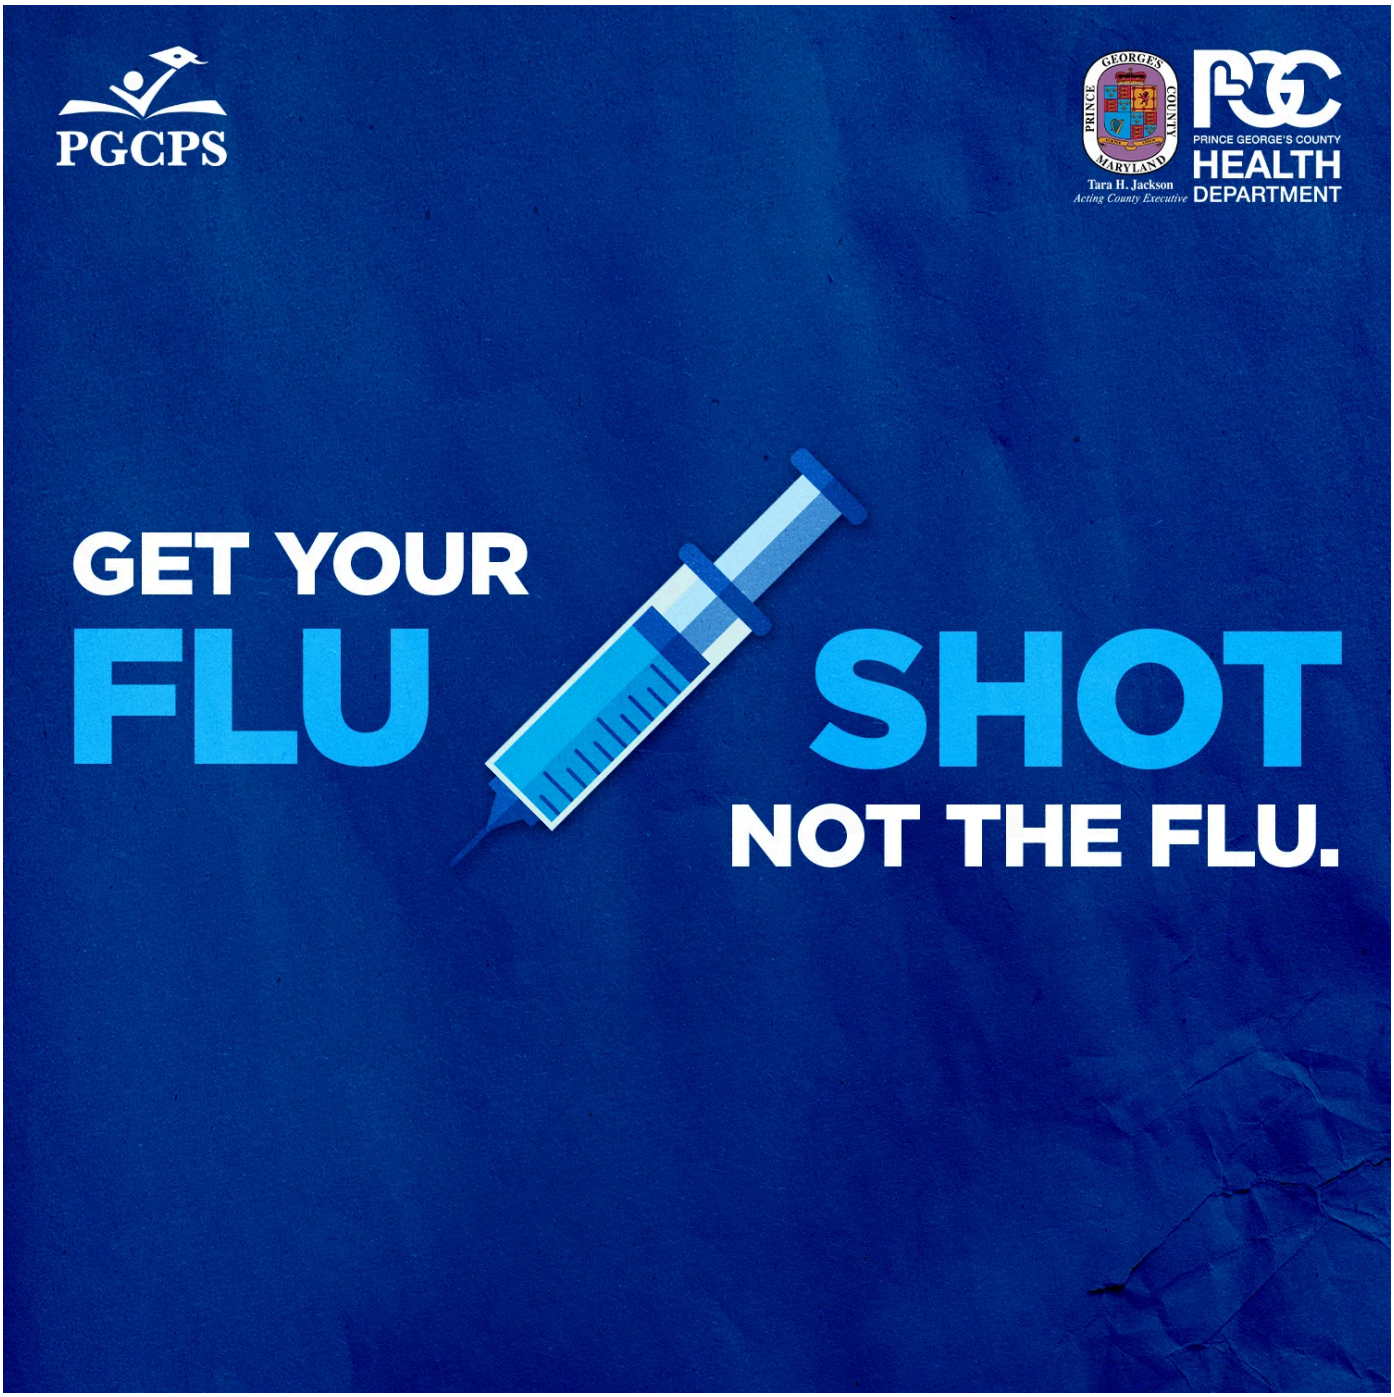

Grad Rates Climb Across All Student Groups

PGCPS is celebrating significant gains in student achievement, with the Class of 2024 graduation rate rising to 80.02% – a 5.6 percentage point increase! Hispanic graduates and English Learners led the way, with nearly 12% and 15% gains, respectively.

These milestones reflect the hard work of students, families and educators across the district. Supporting this success are 97 newly certified National Board Certified Teachers, bringing the total to 635 — making PGCPS one of the top 20 school districts nationwide for these highly accomplished educators!

Flu Season: Help Stop the Spread

Get your Flu Shot, Not the Flu.

Flu season is here, and cases are rising! Protect yourself and your family by scheduling a flu shot at the Prince George's County Health Department Cheverly Health Center Monday through Friday, from 9 am to 3 pm.

We're also partnering with the Health Department, to offer free in-school flu shot clinics for students, staff and families.

Get a free flu shot Wednesday, March 12 from 1-7 pm at James Madison Middle School, 7300 Woodyard Road, Upper Marlboro.
